

Introduction to Engineering Design with Fusion 360 Workshop

Rico Computers Enterprises Inc. is conducting professional development (PD) workshops for high school teachers in the Chicagoland area.

Date: April 13, 2018

Location: Moraine Valley Community College
Building T

9000 W. College Pkwy

Palos Hill, IL 60465

Room: T403

Time: 8 a.m.-2 p.m.

This workshop will focus on the basics to get you up and running with Fusion 360 and introduce key features and concepts.

Professional development details:

- Registration fee is $175 per participant, non-refundable, and due at time of registration.
- Registration deadline is April 6, 2018.
- Registration is limited and capped at 19 participants.
- Registration is available on a first come basis.
- Complete a registration form and submit your registration payment online at:
<https://www.ricoenterprises.com/professional-development>
- Lunch will be provided.
- Professional Development hours are available for teacher participants through Moraine Valley.
- 2-5 teachers from a school are encouraged to attend together for mutual support after training.
- Each full day session will include:
 - o Overview
 - Introduction to Engineering Design with Fusion 360
 - Part modeling
 - Fusion 360 user interface
 - Fusion 360 workflow
 - Creating the sketch
 - Applying constraints
 - Editing the model
 - Creating drawings